REPORT

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

IN

RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE, PASSED MAY 18, 1872, RELATIVE TO THE REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, MADE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TREASURY, HELD AT WASHINGTON, D. C., ON JANUARY 1, 1873.

ANNUAL REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1872.

PREPARED BY THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, AND

SENT TO THE SENATE, MAY 18, 1873.

PRINTED BY THE SENATE, MAY 18, 1873.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, WASHINGTON, D. C.

It is the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the Senate the results of his administration during the year ending December 31, 1872. The report is divided into two parts: the first part contains a general statement of the condition of the Treasury at the beginning and end of the year, and the second part contains a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Treasury during the year.

The first part of the report contains a general statement of the condition of the Treasury at the beginning and end of the year. At the beginning of the year, the Treasury was in a state of comparative poverty, with a small amount of cash on hand and a large amount of debt. At the end of the year, the Treasury was in a state of comparative wealth, with a large amount of cash on hand and a small amount of debt.

The second part of the report contains a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Treasury during the year. The receipts were derived from various sources, including the sale of public lands, the sale of bonds, and the collection of taxes. The disbursements were made for various purposes, including the payment of interest on the public debt, the payment of salaries, and the payment of expenses.

The report also contains a statement of the condition of the Treasury at the beginning and end of the year, and a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Treasury during the year. The report is divided into two parts: the first part contains a general statement of the condition of the Treasury at the beginning and end of the year, and the second part contains a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Treasury during the year.
